- Directed the marketing strategy and social content calendar for 5 society campaigns, resulting in a 40% boost in student membership and event attendance.

Selected Projects

2026

Face Value — Speculative Design

- Insight: A brand can behave like evidence when it is only atmosphere.
- Execution: Designed and exhibited a social deduction board game exploring unconscious bias, managing end-to-end production from layout constraints to final component print sizing.

What Do You Call ? — D&AD New Blood

- Insight: Algorithms struggle to detect metaphor and coded language.
- Execution: Created a campaign tackling the censorship of women's health content online using culturally-driven language to bypass algorithmic moderation.

2025

Twinings x Loneliness — Brand Experience

- Insight: Real connection starts with a shared pause, and tea enforces a low-pressure ritual that helps people open up.
- Execution: Developed an experiential campaign using tea rituals to encourage meaningful social connection.

Pokémon Catchables — Brand Strategy

- Insight: Young audiences seek emotional interaction and self-expression, not just another static trading card.
- Execution: Led concept development and brand world development for an interactive product extension.
